

Sad and lonely summer

Sitting here, sitting here
Thinking about my best friend
Only for the day

Whether be, whether be
Good or bad feeling so sad
I woke up so mad

And last night, and last night
All my sad days have been through
Because you made me love you

Every time, every time
I wake up, back into school
I feel like a fool

Sad and lonely summer
Oh sad and lonely summer
The day that changed everything
When everything's got decided
Sad and lonely brother
Oh sad and lonely brother
You know I'd do anything
To get you back where it started
And make you smile

What would be, what would be
Making you feel you're like hell?
Thinking to give up

Make you feel, make you feel
Like you always want to cry
Cause there's nowhere to end up

Sad and lonely summer
Oh sad and lonely summer
The day that changed everything
When everything's got decided
Sad and lonely brother
You know I'd do anything
To get you back where it started

I've been thinking about you
About what you've been passing through
About what I should have done
To bring back the light of the sun
But there were so many clouds
The sun was wrapped in a shroud
So, I prayed you would fight back
To get back on track

Sad and lonely summer
The day that changed everything
To get you back where it started

Sad and lonely summer
To get you back where it started
