This beautiful world I travel
On my most wonderful vessel
I Zig Zag so much it amuses me
The places I thought I would never see

The beach of such an intense blue
All these people I'm swimming through
And savour this pleasure that life gives me
I forget everything and I am free

Here it is the good life that I dreamed about Everything here is great, so I shout

Take my hand, follow my voice
Ignore the demons who veil (vare) your choice
Don't let them steal your paradise
You build it with your soul and sacrifice

On this cold sand I dance all night
In this vast starry (star-y) sky's delight
And I breathe fresh air that tickles my nose
So the happiness smells like a sweet rose

*Life haunts me but I can move on anyway
Cause I'm no longer feeling any pain*

Take my hand, follow my voice
Ignore the demons who veil (vare) your choice
Don't let them steal your paradise
You build it with your soul

*The truth, wakes up the little girl
My fragile happiness
The feeling of abandonment
Fall back, I sense prowess*

*The reality that kills me
Surrounded by the smell
Of my warm and loving mother
Burning, blowing like hell*

*Caused by this terrible father
The heart fills with cold tears
The tears that freeze the waking dream
And replace it with fears*

Take my hand, follow my voice
Ignore the demons who veil (vare) your choice
Don't let them steal your paradise
You build it with your soul

Take my hand, follow my voice
Ignore the demons who veil (vare) your choice
Don't let them steal your paradise
You build it with your soul and sacrifice
